

Lord Peston (1931 – 2016)

Lord Peston was Emeritus Professor in the Department of Economics at Queen Mary University of London and chaired the House of Lords Select Committee on Economic Affairs. He strongly supported secular principles and opposed government policy of religious privilege in education and public policy.