

Events

Links are provided to events which may be of interest to secularists. Unless otherwise stated the NSS does not necessarily support or endorse these events. Subscribe to Newslines to keep up to date with new secularism-related events in your area.

Let us know about an event

Is there an upcoming event you think should be on this page? If you think it would be of interest to secularists please let us know.

We particularly encourage people to get in touch with events outside of London.

* Required Field

Let us know about an event

Event name:

Website/URL:

Event date:

Information about the event:

Your email*:

- Secularist of the Year

Secularist of the Year is an opportunity to celebrate the outstanding groups and inspiring individuals advancing secularism and related human rights.

Read More

- The Bradlaugh Lecture

This annual event features a distinguished speaker exploring an aspect of secularism. Named for our founder Charles Bradlaugh MP.

Read More

- Annual General Meetings

The AGM is usually held in London in November. Members receive notification with the Autumn Bulletin and the event is added to the events page.

Read More

Other events

A selection of our past events are below. Current events are in the listing above. You can also find our past Secularist of the Year awards and Bradlaugh Lectures events on their respective pages.

- Secularism 2019: Reclaiming Religious Freedom

Read More

- Radicals, Rebels, and Revolutionaries of the 19th century \(2019\)

Read More

- Healthcare & Secularism Conference \(2018\)

Read More

- Conference on 21st Century RE for All \(2018\)

Read More

- Secularism 2016: Living Better Together

Read More

- The 1944 Education Act and its legacy

Read More

- Exploring Secularism for educators: CPD day \(2020\)

Read More