Posted: Fri, 01 Feb 2013

This year's Secularist of the Year lunch is approaching (Saturday 23 March) and it promises to be a very special occasion. We hope that you'll join us for the NSS's premier social event that is always congenial and friendly – and held in a top-notch West End venue.

The event includes a welcome cocktail, and a three course meal with tea or coffee to follow.

This is your opportunity to meet secularists from around the country and mingle with some of our distinguished honorary associates.

All this for £45 – it's a steal. Get your ticket now online or send a cheque made out to "NSS" to National Secular Society, 25 Red Lion Square, London WC1R 4RL.
