

Ep 37: Christian nationalism and the US election

Posted: Thu, 29th Oct 2020

In this episode the NSS's Alastair Lichten catches up with Andrew Seidel, an attorney at the Freedom From Religion Foundation.

They discuss the role that secularist issues and Christian nationalism are playing in the ongoing US presidential election, the extent to which US parties and voters are sorting along religious lines or polarising on secularist issues, and the challenges these pose to non-partisan organisations like the FFRF.
