Power grab: Academisation and the threat to secular education

Wed, 21st Oct 2020

This report highlights how academisation has enabled faith groups to increase their influence over all schools, including those with no religious character. With little public debate, religious governance has increased, while secular oversight has diminished.

Religious reps: unrepresentative, unnecessary and unjustified

Fri, 16th Aug 2019

Our 2019 report makes the case for removing religious appointees from education committees in Scotland. It systematically examines the arguments in defence of religious appointees and the positions of local authorities.
