

MP Letter: Religious education

Reform religious education

Writing to your MP can help to get the campaign for RE reform on the political agenda. We campaign in parliament as an organisation, and your support will bolster our case.

Hints and tips

- Personalising your letter will make it more likely to have an impact.
- Keep your thoughts fairly brief. MPs are busy and get a lot of correspondence.
- Use clear and simple language.
- Those who defend the status quo often say the current arrangements for RE teaching merely encourage young people to understand a wide range of cultures and beliefs. If you have an interesting perspective which helps to undermine this argument, consider sharing it.

Name*:

Email*:

Postcode*:

Address:

Message*:

Dear {{name}},

I'm writing to urge you to engage positively with the Commission on Religious Education's report into the future of RE in English belief interacts with the rights of others.

The National Secular Society's 21st Century RE for All campaign goes beyond the Commission's recommendations by arguing for every

* Required Field

Preview Letter